

Taat kyevtkielâlâš sämikielâ-engâlâskielâg párnáikirje muštâl Samâlist já maht sun teivâd motomijd elleid, moh tälvidiđ Säämist. Saammâl lii nuorâ kaandâš, kote lijkoo fiäránáid. Mottoom tälvipeeivi, taan kirjerááiđu viiđâd kirjeest, Saammâl tiäivâ puáris skipárijnis. Sun išseed skipáris já siämmást šadda uásilistid fiäránâ, mon ääigi sun uáppá, ete nuubij ravvuid kannat kuldâliđ já ete jávuttes äijih lii vijses máttâátteijee.

This bilingual Inari Saami/English children's book tells of Sameli and his meeting with some of the animals that overwinter in Lapland. Sammeli is a young Inari Saami boy who likes adventure. One winter day, in this fifth book of the series, Sammeli meets an old friend. Whilst helping his friend he has an adventure and learns some valuable lessons along the way. He learns to listen to advice and that experience is a wise teacher.

